THE ORPHAN BALLAD SINGERS.

Oh, weary, weary are our feet,
And weary, weary is our way;
Through many a long and crowded street
We've wandered mournfully to-day.
My little sister she is pale;
She is too tender and too young
To bear the autumn's sullen gale,
And all day long the child has sung.

She was our mother's favorite child,
Who loved her for her eyes of blue;
And she is delicate and mild—
She cannot do what I can do.
She never met her father's eyes,
Although they were so like her own;
In some far distant sea he lies,
A father to his child unknown.

The first time that she lisped his name,
A little playful thing was she;
How proud we were,—yet that night came
The tale how he had sunk at sea.
My mother never raised her head—
How strange, how white, how cold she grew!
It was a broken heart, they said—
I wish our hearts were broken too.

We have no home—we have no friends;
They said our home no more was ours—
Our cottage where the ash-tree bends,
The garden we had filled with flowers;
The sounding shells our father brought,
That we might hear the sea at home;
Our bees, that in the summer wrought
The winter's golden honeycomb.

We wandered forth mid wind and rain,
No shelter from the open sky;
I only wish to see again
My mother's grave, and rest, and die.
Alas, it is a weary thing
To sing our ballads o'er and o'er—
The songs we used at home to sing—
Alas, we have a home no more!

From "Scenes from Parisian Life."

LOCAL CHARACTERISTICS OF PARIS.

Perhaps there is no city in Europe where situation is considered more important in the choice of a residence than Paris: there are many streets which are even disreputable, others which are aristocratic and genteel, others where the character of the inhabitants is doubtful; some few in which assassination is frequently committed; and many parts which are old, noisy and dirty, and which are inhabited by the laboring class of society. There are neighborhoods which are not habitable, others where we should gladly choose to reside, and in many parts of the city there is great irregularity even in the same street. The rue Montmartre, among several we could name, is wide at one end, while the other is a narrow close alley. The rue de la Paix is a fine wide street, but very inferior in grandeur to the rue Royale, or the Place Vendome, both of which are imposing. In walking through the Ile Saint Louis, we are immediately struck with the nervous sadness which is inspired by the solitude and deserted appearance of the large hotels. This island recalls Lord Byron's beautiful description of death, and is the Venice of Paris.—The Square of the Exchange is noisy, bustling, and prostituted; but no place can exceed it in beauty in a moonlight night, for no modern building in Europe excels the chaste architecture of the Exchange. During the day, the Square is an epitome of Paris; at night, it recalls a scene in Greece. The rue Traversiere-Saint-Honore is an infamous street, chiefly composed of small two-windowed houses, in every story of which vice, crime and poverty are to be met.

It is in the narrow lanes exposed to the north that mortality reigns with impunity; the justice of the present day does not occupy itself with them; formerly the lieutenant of the police would have been summoned by the parliament to indict these lanes as a nuisance.—Monsieur Benaiston de Chateauneuf has proved that the mortality of these streets was double that of any others. To prove this by an example—In a word, is not the rue Fromenteau both pestilential and the residence of every vice?

These observations, incomprehensible out of Paris, will strike men of study and reflection, of literature, and of pleasure, who, in lounging in its streets, partake of the ever varying amusements within its walls. For such, Paris is most inviting, from the constant change of scene; and we may compare it to a monster whose head is filled with genius and science, and whose limbs are in constant motion. Hardly has the last rumbling of carriages ceased, ere the Barriers are in movement; all the gates yawn, and turn on their hinges, like the membranes of a large lobster, invisibly worked by thirty thousand men and women, who each live in six feet square, having a kitchen, a workshop, children, and a garden. Insensibly the movement increases, the streets are alive. At noon every thing is in motion; the chimneys are smoking; the monster eats. Then he roars, and his thousand claws are agitated!

How beautiful a scene Paris offers to the lover of the picturesque, by her dark landscapes—the rays of light amid the large and silent courts form a contrast which all must admire who can feel. There are a few idlers, those whose minds are perfectly free, who digest Paris, who know so well every feature of it, that they see a wen, a wart, or a pimple. But for others, Paris is ever this prodigious wonder, this astonishing assemblage of motion, of machinery and ideas—the city of a thousand romances, the head of the world. For these, however, Paris is dull or gay, ugly or beautiful, living or dead—Paris is a creature—every man, each division of a house, is a lobe of the weaving of this great courtisan, with whose head, heart, and fantastic manners, they are well acquainted. Thus these are the lovers of Paris! They look up at the corner of a street, sure of meeting the dial of a clock—they say to a friend whose snuff-box is empty, 'Go through such a passage; there is a tobacco-shop on the left, near the pastrycook's who has a pretty wife.' To go about Paris is an expensive luxury for these amateurs—they cannot deny themselves the pleasure of passing some time in the theatres, and looking at the disasters, the odd faces, the picturesque accidents, which assail you in the midst of this moving Queen of Cities, covered with advertisements, and yet not one clean corner in her—so complaisant is she to the vices of the French nation.—Which of us has not set off in the morning from his home to go to the extremity of Paris, without having had sufficient resolution to leave even its centre at the dinner-hour?

DR. A. ANDREW respectfully tenders his sincere thanks to his friends and patrons for the past season, for their patronage, and begs leave to inform them that he has obtained the first quality of medicines for the cure of Cancers and Wens, Scrofulas, Humours of all kinds, old and bad Ulcers, and bad diseases in all their stages—all of which he challenges any physician to beat him in performing a cure quicker and more effectually than he can. His medicines are safe and easy to apply. Good reference can be given if required.

CAUTION.—Whereas one or two persons in this city have represented they have obtained my skill in curing the above diseases, and have deceived some persons, I wish to inform the public it is false. Beware of impostors, fellow citizens. n4

TENNENT'S PHILADELPHIA STOCKS.—J. G. WYMAN has received a small invoice of the above beautiful Neck Stocks. Gentlemen wishing the article can be supplied by calling immediately—71 Washington st. opposite the Post office. n24

ROXBURY INDIA RUBBER COMPANY.—The Roxbury India Rubber Company inform the public that they have opened a Warehouse, No 109 State street, Boston. Since the commencement of their operations at the manufactory, they have tested the usefulness and importance of this great invention, and have covered on different fabrics of cloth and leather upwards of 100,000 yards. They have introduced the article into many parts of the United States with the greatest success, and it has been applied to the following uses, viz:

Garments, ladies' and gentlemen's	Chaise and Carriage Tops, Boots and Aprons
Hats, Gloves and Stockings	Awnings and Gun Covers
Gaiters and Garters	Shades and Horse Clothing
Suction, Leading, and all other kinds of Hose	Game-Bags and Fishing Wallets
Wagon, Stage and Rail Road Car Coverings	Thoroughbraces
All kinds of Machinery Bands or Beltings	Stopple Coverings
Hydrostatic and Air Beds	Fancy and Nurses Aprons
Coverings for Billiard Tables	Beds, Pillows and Cushions
Durant's Life Preservers	Swimming Belts
Bandages for Physicians	Hot Water and Gas Bags
Mail and Travelling Bags	Roof Coverings
Foreign Letter Bags	Umbrellas and Bellows
Knapsacks and Tents	Table and Piano Forte Cloths
Canal and other Boat Coverings	Injection Pipes and Stomach Pumps
Inside and out door Coverings	Horse Reins for Chaises and Bridles
Suspenders and Pantaloon Straps	Life Beds and Mattresses
Physician's Air Reliefs	Under Water Garments
Shoes and Boots of all descriptions, impervious to water or damp	Powder Bags and Clothes Bags
	Vessel's sails, &c.
	Portable Boats

Some of the above articles have reached a great degree of perfection, and give general satisfaction. Others are rapidly approaching it. Among them are the clothing, to which, it is found, the Rubber adds twice if not three times the strength and durability of the fabric. Shoes, Boots, Covering for Tops, Sides and Curtains of Stages, Rail Road Cars, and small and large Wagons, Aprons, Hose, Belting for Factories, Life Preservers, and Life Beds or Mattresses. The above with many others, have been fully tested and highly approved. They are now offered to the public, at the Company's Store, in such quantities as they have been able to manufacture. The Company, however, are extending their establishment, and hope to meet the wants of the public.

RODGERS' IMPERIAL STOCKS.
6 Joy's Building, up stairs.
[Opposite the Post Office, Boston.]
WILLIAM H. ROGERS, most respectfully invites the attention of Merchant Tailors and the public generally, to his new invented Imperial Stocks for the Neck, which for ease and elegance very far surpass every thing of the kind hitherto manufactured in this vicinity. They are cut scientifically; the materials and manner of making are quite different from those in common use, and they may be covered many times, and retain exactly the same shape as when first made. W. H. R. requests permission to enumerate the usual faults in the common Stocks, viz: 1st, the very inferior materials used; 2d, their sitting away from the chin and exposing the neck, when disagreeably close at the bottom; 3d, the edge at the top being uncomfortably tight, as to cause a distortion of the features by moving the head; 4th, that of their bulging out at the sides, by moving the head a little downwards, which has a most distasteful appearance. By W. H. Rogers' deservedly admired and extensively patronized invention, all these faults are completely obviated. Naval and military gentlemen will find them the most pleasing and durable. Made to order of any texture, by the dozen or single, at the lowest cash prices. Ladies' Riding Stocks beautifully made to order. tf—july 23

WILLIAM SHELDON respectfully informs the public, that he is established at No 11 William's court, rear of No 101 Washington street, where he will attend to Cleaning—Bronzing—Lacquering and Repairing every description of Lamps and Fancy Brass and plated ware—Time Piece Circles and Pendulum Balls—Cane Ferules—Side Board, Desk and Counter railing—Screw Cutting—and Brass Work in general.

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1834.

Extract from a letter dated

Washington, Saturday, Nov. 29, 1834. The members of Congress are rapidly flocking to the capital. The Democrats are in high spirits, and bring the most gratifying accounts of the state of public sentiment in every section of the Union. The distress-makers are the only portion of the community who feel what they predicted would be realized by the friends of the administration, viz: defeat, mortification, and the loss of public confidence. The visages of the opposition have elongated, since last winter, marvelously, while the Democrats are as pleasant and "calm as a summer's morning." The President is in excellent health, and pursues the even tenor of his way, conscious of the uprightness of his conduct, with an unfaltering pace. I spent some time with him this morning—he was very cheerful, and conversed with great freedom. The wisdom of his measures is already developed, and he will now go forward to the end of his stewardship, aided by the support and love of his countrymen, to whose interests he has been devoted, in body and mind, from youth to age Perfect harmony exists between the members of the Cabinet, and the wheels of government perform their revolutions with that certainty, correctness and regularity which have ever distinguished the movements of their great main-spring. Never were more able and faithful officers in the departments than are to be found there now. The Senate will probably make an onset upon the General Post Office, the multifarious transactions of which afford them the best opportunity for misrepresentation; but Major Barry has truth and integrity to sustain him, and with these he may safely defy, as he will surely triumph over, the calumny of his traducers. He asks no favor—he only wishes for justice—but this he cannot expect at the hands of the panic prophets—he will receive it, however, from a more honorable and acceptable source, the great body of the people, in whose decision he will find an honorable acquittal, and behold, swinging from the gallows prepared for himself, his defamers, the deceivers and betrayers of their constituents.

☞ It is but a short time since Maj. Noah referred to Mr Mangum of North Carolina, as an individual he should be pleased to see brought forward for the Presidency, and requested some one acquainted with his history to write and publish it. A writer who signs himself Lucius in the last Raleigh Standard has, in anticipation of Maj. Noah's wishes, undertaken to sketch Judge Mangum—and the first stroke of his pencil is this:—

"In the year 1815, (if I mistake not) you entered into the active scenes of politics, a zealous and decided Federalist. The ardor of youth and warmth of feeling, made you an active partizan. True to the party whose cause you espoused, you took the field with all the zeal of a volunteer, and with saddle-bags and documents, you entered the service against the Republican candidate for Congress in your district. You denounced the War, (then the subject of discussion) as unjust in its origin, ruinous in its prosecution, and as having brought neither national honor nor character in its termination."

The work goes bravely on.—The Legislature of Georgia have re-elected the Hon John P. King to the United States Senate for six years, from the 4th of March next—and chosen Hon. Alfred Cuthbert to fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr Forsyth's resignation. Both of these gentlemen are ardent supporters of the present administration. The following is the polls:—

John P. King, 154	A. Cuthbert, 127
Geo. R. Gilmer, 80	Dr H. Branham, 61
Scattering, 9	O. H. Kenan, 31
	Scattering, 20.

Gov. Marcy's Majority.—The majority for Gov. Marcy in New York exceeds 13,000. In West Chester county an error occurred by which Seward was stated to have received 2766 votes, whereas he only received 2716. There were in other places 84 votes Gov. Marcy not included—and a majority of 36 votes for Gov. Marcy lost by the rejection of the vote of the town of Hampton.

A Swig Trick—At a recent city election in New Haven, (Ct.) the Swigs had a majority, and forthwith proceeded to elect from 80 to 100 tything men, hardly a man of whom belonged in the State or had a legal settlement there. The Constitution of the State provides that before an individual can vote there, he must have "gained a settlement." Among other ways of gaining a settlement, provided by the laws of the State, is that of being appointed to, or executing some public office.—So that all these tything men will take the oath of office just before the next election, and then be made electors; when, of course, they will add so much to the available strength of the Swig party.

Great excitement exists in Anne Arundel and Prince George Counties, (Md.) where the recent murders were committed by the laborers on the Rail Road, in consequence of the inactivity of the corporation in ferreting out the murderers. The citizens have held a public meeting, at which they resolved that they do "consider and hold the present class of Irish laborers employed on the Baltimore and Washington Rail Road, as a gang of ruffians and murderers, combined together under the most solemn ties to carry into effect such hellish designs as their passions or prejudices may prompt them to commit;" and that if the corporation does not see fit to discharge all such characters, the citizens will unite in expelling them from their counties, forcibly if they must—or, in their own words, "that in case the company does not adopt such measures as will in future secure them from being harassed by these frequent riots on the road, that they will muster a sufficient force and drive every Irishmen off the road, from the Patapsco to the big Patuxent, at all hazards; and in this determination they are promised the co-operation and aid of other sections of our country."

Coffee.—We learn by an official paragraph in the Globe that the amount of Coffee imported into the U. States, for the three first quarters of 1833 was 99,955,020 lbs. valued at $10,567,299; and that for the three first quarters of 1834, there were imported 60,344,701 lbs. valued at $6,473,469. During the corresponding period last year, there were exported 24,897,144 lbs. valued at $3,041,689—this year 32,715,599 lbs. valued at $3,969,906.

Lucrezia Borgia.—Mr Hill's version of Victor Hugo's celebrated play was produced on Monday evening to a crowded house, and with entire success. The part of Lucrezia is one of the most powerful female characters in the drama, and was rendered very effective by Mrs Pelby. A more able personation of a fiend let loose in the form of woman, we would not wish to behold. With all the detestable traits which distinguish Lucrezia, her devotion to her son is so constantly apparent, that we lose sight of the demon she really is, in her soul-absorbing affection as a mother. The climax of stage horrors has been reserved for the last scene of Lucrezia Borgia. We know of nothing more appalling and heart-sickening than the events that here occur. Six noble and gallant youths are at the festive board, in the height of hilarity. The song, the jest and the laugh, ring loudly on the ear. All is gaiety, and revelry, and splendor. Suddenly, in the midst of the loud and tumultuous chorus to their Bacchanalian song, when the wine has done its office, and they are clashing their goblets together, come the swelling peal of the organ, the awful chant of the service for the dead, and a funeral procession of ghastly monks. Then appears Lucrezia herself, with the dreadful announcement that the boisterous revellers are all poisoned by the Borgia composition—their coffins are shown, each bearing the name of its intended occupant, and the young men are ushered, with frightful preparations, to their winding sheets. The effect is terrific, and the concluding incident of the play is as awful as it is unexpected. We could find fault with many parts of the performance on Monday evening—but we suppose that not a few of the most palpable errors should be attributed to the confusion of a first representation.

The Message.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, under date of the 29th ult., (Saturday) is of opinion that there would not be a quorum of both Houses of Congress present on Monday, and consequently that the Message would not be delivered until 12 o'clock on Tuesday. In this event its arrival here cannot be expected before Thursday—whereas, if it was delivered on Monday it will reach here this morning.

Gov. Swain nas been re-elected Governor of North Carolina.

Municipal.—At a meeting of the Mayor and Aldermen on Monday:

The committee of the Southern District reported that the sea wall at South Boston is completed.

The committee on the Fire Department made a report respecting Engine Company No. 13, having violated the rules and regulations of said department.

An order passed authorising the Mayor to employ a surveyor, whose special duty it shall be to lay down the plans and descriptions in the books of the city of all those common sewers heretofore constructed, which have not yet been entered in said books.

The board of accounts' return and report of the state of the jail were received and read.

Dreadful Conflagration.—Capt Benson, arrived at Salem, brings papers from Trieste, giving an account of an awful fire on the 15th of Sept. at Wiener Neustadt, which broke out at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and being driven by a vehement southeast wind, spread with the rapidity of lightning all over the city; in a few minutes every thing was enveloped in an immense sheet of flame, and at the end of a single hour every dwelling house was destroyed—four hundred and ninety-four in number. Half a dozen houses destroyed in the suburbs, carry the number up to five hundred. Five-sixths of the population, which consisted of 10,000, were reduced to a state of the most extreme destitution, without food or shelter. On the 10th of Sept. thirty dead bodies had been dug out of the ruins, shockingly burnt and mutilated.—N. Y. Gaz.

Gas.—Mr Caldwell made a second experiment of his Gas, last night. The several stations in front of Bishops, and Canal street were lighted, and literally turned night into day, and of course put the old city lights into such perfect obscurity that it would have required at least four or five of them to find out where they were placed. The Planters' Hotel was also illuminated with the gas lights. In the bar room we saw six burners which gave more light than the fourteen lamps formerly used. We presume our citizens are now more generally satisfied of the many and great advantages of gas over every other kind of lights.—New Orleans Adv.

Suicide.—Lydia Powell, a young girl, of Salem county, N. J., of a cheerful and contented disposition, committed suicide, on Tuesday last, without any assigned cause, under the following peculiar circumstances.—"The most suprising feature in this painful tragedy," says the Salem Union, "is the apparent coolness and deliberation with which she had prepared herself for her awful death. Her toilet had been made with more than usual care. She had clothed herself in her best attire, her gala day suit, the same we are informed in which she had attended a wedding on the previous Saturday—had arranged her hair with particular nicety, and bedecked her person with all the ornaments of which she was mistress. Having done this, she went to the garret, attached a rope to the rafters, and then ascending the steps leading to the trap door, fixed it about her neck, and sprung off."—U. S. Gaz.

More Aggressions.—The driver of the Mail stage from Washington states that the stable attached to Merrill's tavern at Waterloo, on the Washington road, about 13 miles from Baltimore, was burnt down last night about 12 o'clock. It is believed to have been set on fire by some of the laborers on the Rail Road, who have been lurking about the premises for some days past. It is reported that a dwelling about two miles from Waterloo was also burnt, but there is no certainty of this.—Baltimore Patriot of Saturday evening.

More Roguery.—On Monday night, the copperplate printing office of Mr Robert Andrews, over 87 Washington street, was entered by some villains, and his desks and draws broken open, and letters, papers, and prints, scattered in all directions. In the desk was a letter, received during Mr A.'s temporary absence from the city, containing a $50 bill, which the rogue took, leaving the letter behind, to tell the tale of the robbery. Nothing else of much value was taken.—Trans.

The Wesleyan University at Middleton, Conn., is in a very flourishing condition, having already 95 students. This is the college established under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The Brown University in Providence, R. I., has 167 pupils. This college was established by the Baptist denomination.

Amherst College, Mass., has 243 students. This institution was established, if we mistake not, by the Trinitarian Congregational denomination.

Yale College, Conn., has 353 students, besides 53 in the theological, and 45 in the law schools. The theology of this school is like that of Amherst College.—U. S. Gaz.

The City Indicted.—The Grand Jurors presented the City of Boston to the Supreme Court, on Monday, for a nuisance, in not repairing Second street, at South Boston. The case is novel, and of much interest. Trans.

TRIAL OF THE CONVENT BURNERS.

Correspondence of the Reporter of the Boston Morning Post.

East Cambridge, Tuesday, Dec. 2, 1834.

After experiencing more than a usual portion of "the law's delay," the long expected and much talked of trial of the individuals indicted for burning the Convent of Mount Benedict, on the night of the 11th of August last, commenced this morning, in the Supreme Judicial Court, now in session in this place, before the Hon. Chief Justice Shaw, and the Hon. Associate Justices Putnam and Morton. In accordance with a previous arrangement, the prisoners, although all included in one indictment, are to be tried separately—a course more favorable, perhaps, to their defence, than agreeable to the wishes of others interested or warned in the trial.—Judge Shaw, after waiting some minutes for a moving of the waters below him, in vain, gave notice that the Court was prepared to enter upon any business that might come before it, J. T. Austin, Esq., Attorney General, arose and stated that the government still labored under the difficulty which rendered it unable to proceed to trial at the former term—viz, the absence of material witnesses. He was not able to assign with certainty what their absence might be attributed to, but supposed their non-appearance might in some degree be occasioned by a printed notification, which was extensively circulated, threatening with assassination any who should appear in Court, as witnesses against the persons who destroyed the Convent, "according to the oath that bound the parties together." Mr Farley, of Groton, expressed, in reply to the Attorney General, that the notice was full as likely to have been issued by persons hostile to the prisoners, or by any of their friends.—Mr Austin then observed, that he was unwilling that all the preparations made to proceed in the trial at the present term should be in vain, and moved that JOHN R. BUZZELL be put on trial. The traverse jurors, when confronted, one by one, by the prisoners, were asked by Ch. J. Shaw, if they had formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoners or any of the prisoners; or if they were aware of any particular interest or feeling in the cause; or entertained conscientions scruples against convicting in a capital case.

In addition to the preceding interrogatories, the Attorney General proposed to ask the jurors, if they were under a prejudice that the testimony of a Catholic witness ought not to have the same weight as the testimony of a witness of any other persuasion?

Mr Farley objected to this question, and Mr Austin rejoined—"It would be a perfect mockery to present this case, which must depend mainly on Catholic testimony, to a juror, who has a bias and a prejudice against Catholics. An effort has been made to create the impression that Catholics are not entitled to belief in the same manner that other persuasions are. It is therefore importan tto put an inquiry of this kind—and if the influence I have suggested has not reached the juror, he will then stand perfectly clear."

Ch. J. Shaw announced it to be the opinion of the Court, that such a prejudice would not destroy the competency of a juror, and the question was accordingly ruled out.

The Attorney General then proposed to ask the jurors, if they had formed any opinion of the act itself, distinct from the perpetrators of it, and put the following case:—"Suppose a juror should have been known to say—I'm glad the Convent is burnt down; but I'm sorry it was done by a mob."

The question was, however, ruled out, and the jury was empannelled, [without any further interruption.—Their names are—William Farris, foreman; Abner Albee, Nathan Brooks, Joseph Bigelow, Artemas Cutter, John Cutting, Perry Daniells, Osgood Dana, Thomas J. Elliott, Reuben Haynes, John Jones, William Rice.

The indictment, which of itself would make a large pamphlet, contained twenty-four counts, alleging in a variety of forms, that John R. Buzzell, Prescott P. Pond, William Mason, Nathaniel Budd, the younger, Marvin Marcy, Sargent Blaisdell, Aaron Hadley, Benjamin Wilbur, Ephraim G. Holwell, Isaac Parker, Alvah Kelley, Thomas Dillon, and sundry other persons unknown, did on the 11th of August, burglariously and feloniously enter with clubs and bludgeons, in the night time, the dwelling house of MARY ANN URSULA MOFFATT, otherwise called MARY EDMOND SAINT GEORGE, and steal certain sums of money, and burn the building thereafter.

The case was opened on the part of the Government, by Asahel Huntington, Esq., District Attorney, who remarked that Buzzell stood charged with a capital offence; and that a Jury would always feel the overwhelming responsibility of passing upon a case where human life is in issue. The prisoner was charged with offences of the highest class—arson and burglary, in the night time, which had always been a capital offence. With respect to Buzzell, Mr H. said that the prosecution would be able to prove, that he was on the ground at 8 o'clock, on the evening preceding the outrage; that he was acting as a leader, exciting others, and wielding a club; that he used abusive language, and refused to give his name, but boasted that he had flogged an Irishman on the canal some time before, and by this circumstance they were able to fix in part his indentity, as they could prove that he had in fact beaten an Irishman, at the time and place alleged; the government were also prepared to prove by an accomplice, that he was on the ground, and by another witness, who was not an accomplice, that he was actually in the house.

The first witness who was called to the stand, was Mary Ann Ursula Moffatt, known in the Mount Benedict Community, by the religious name of "Mary Edmond St George," and the Superior of the Convent, having entire jurisdiction over the temporal concerns of the community. In explanation of her double name, she stated, that when nuns assumed the veil, they also assumed a name different from that which they bore in the world. At the time the Court adjourned, this witness had not disclosed any facts which reached Buzzell, and but few but what have been generally known to the public at large for some time. She, however, stated, that Miss Harrison, whose supposed abduction created the excitement, which resulted in the destruction of the convent, was the nun who accompanied the Charlestown selectmen when they searched the building for the missing lady—herself! That a gnn was fired under the willow tree, by the rioters—that one of them, when told that their noise might cause the death of an invalid nun (since deceased) replied "so much the better"—that property, belonging to the pupils alone, amounting to fifty thousand dollars was destroyed and stolen, and over one thousand dollars, in money belonging to herself;

Indian Murders, and probable War.—The steamboat Warrior arrived at this port on Saturday from Prairie du Chein. We are sorry to learn—as we do by her—that the Indians in that region have again been engaged in hostile acts, and that they portend a serious termination. A short time since, a party of the Sacs and Foxes attacked a party or lodge of the Menominees, upon Grant river, and killed three persons. The murderers were, however, (it was ascertained at Rock Island) delivered up by Keokuc, to a detachment of United States soldiers, under the command of Captain ———. They were put on board the steamboat Winnebago, then ascending the Mississippi, for the purpose of being taken to a proper place for trial.

On the day previous to the arrival of the Warrior at Prairie du Chien, another massacre took place by a party of the same tribe of Indians. On an island, about three miles above the Prairie, a lodge of Winnebagoes was established. It was occupied at the time by women and children only—the warriors being absent on a hunting excursion. Suddenly, the Sac and Fox party made their appearance before the lodge, fired into it, tomahawked and scalped ten of the inmates. But one of the Sac warriors lost his life, and that was by the hand of a Winnebago boy, about 15 years of age. The youth was standing at the door of the lodge, between a younger brother and sister, when two of the warriors made their appearance and fired upon them. Recollecting, instantly, that an old gun remained in the lodge, loaded, he procured it, and awaited the return of the foe, who had retreated for the purpose of re-loading their guns. As soon as they appeared before him, he took deliberate aim at one of them, fired, and the bullet went through the heart of his enemy. He then escaped to the interior of the lodge, made his way for the river, swam it, and gave information of the massacre at Fort Crawford. A detachment of troops was immediately ordered out in pursuit of the murderers, but, as far as known, without success. The Winnebagoes, it is said, had determined on retaliation, and their warriors were already collecting. Their foe, it is also known, are ready to receive them—having been recently arming and equipping themselves for fight. Towards the Winnebagoes, all parties of the Sacs and Foxes have an undying hatred. They view them as having been the cause, by their bad counsels, of all the calamities brought upon them by the late war, and as having acted a treacherous and infamous part at the termination of it. Many circumstances concur to make it more than probable, that, should a conflict take place, it will be a long and bloody one.—St Louis Republican, Sept. 18.

Governor Vroom of New Jersey, has appointed Thursday, the 11th day of this month, as a day of public Thanksgiving and Prayer to Almighty God. On the same day, by recommendation of Governor Marcy, there will be a similar day in New York.

Theodore S. Fay, one of the editors of the New York Mirror, now in Italy, has completed a novel, in two volumes, which will shortly be issued from the London press; scene part in New York and part in Italy.

REVIEW OF THE BOSTON MARKET

FOR THE WEEK ENDING TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2.

ASHES—The late improvement that has taken place in several markets for Pearls, together with an unusual limited supply in our own market, has caused prices to further advance—and since our last, sales have been made at 117 a $120 pr ton, at which rates holders have acquired considerable firmness.—In Pots, the transactions are of little interest, but prices are higher, and we quote accordingly.

BARILLA—Continues scarce, and is in fair demand.

BEANS—A sale of 500 bushels was made at 1.50 pr bush—and 300 do, at 1.25 a 1.27½—and a superior lot as high as 1.75 a 1.87½ pr bush.

CANDLES—A sale of 800 boxes Sperm has been made at 28c pr lb—and shipments of 2000 boxes Moulds, for shipping, at 10c pr lb, 6 mo cr.

COAL—There is a heavy stock of English, with an exceedingly limited demand, and importers have been compelled to store their cargoes for the want of buyers at any price—small sales of superior Orrell have been made at $9½, and Newcastle 9½ a $10 pr chaldron—Anthracite continues to sustain the late advance for the required immediate supplies.

COFFEE—The transactions have been principally for Rio and consists of 10 a 1200 bags at 11 a 11¼ c per lb—300 do St Domingo 10¼—200 do do at 10 c and 300 do Aux Cayes 9¾ a 10 c per lb—150 do Java 13 c and 120 do Havana 10 1-2 c per lb 6 mos cr, and by auction 280 bags Porto Cabello at 10½ a 10 1-2 c per lb 4 mos.

CORDAGE—Sales of several small importions of Russia at 3¾ a 4 c—4½ a 5 c and 5¾ a 6 c per lb short price.

COTTON—Since our review of the last week, about 1000 bales have come into market, and small sales N. Orleans and Georgia uplands have been made at 19 a 20 c per lb at which rates most of the late supplies are held.

COPPER—Manufactured has been in good demand and sales at quotations.

DUCK—No change of much importance on last reported prices and sales 5 a 600 ps—various qualities have been made at quotations.

DYE STUFFS—The business of the week has been extremely limited and quotations are not materially different from former reported prices.

DRUGS—Continues in fair demand and prices for most of the leading articles have sustained not much alteration on prices—a recent importation of Crude Brimstone was taken at $50 per ton cash.

FRUIT.—The movements in Malaga fruits have been at private sale, principally at our last reported prices—cargo of brig Dove arrived since our last report.

GLUE.—Sales of American have been made at 10c, and Russian 12c per lb, and choice quality at 12 a 14c per lb, 6 mos cr.

GRAIN.—The grain market continues exceedingly dull, and the late arrivals have been sold at a reduction on former quotations—new northern corn at 75c, and old do 78c, yellow flat 74 a 75c, and white, new, 70c per bushel—oats 35 a 40c, with heavy supplies—rye scarce, and last reported prices continued.

FISH.—The supplies of dry fish did not experience so ready a sale last week as dealers anticipated, and prices were less firmly sutained—the following are the principal sales:—2500 qtls hake $1.33 a $1.37 per qtl—3000 Bank and Bay $2 a $2 08 per do.

In mackerel the market at the close of the week, was cleared of nearly all on hand for sale—$4, $4½, $5, and $5¾ a $5⅞ per bbl.

FLOUR.—There has been a large augmentation of the stock of Genessee, and sales 4 a 5000 bbls effected, mostly on landing, $5¾ a $5¾—a better demand has been experienced for southern, for shipping, and sales for this purpose at $5⅞ for Hd. Street, and $6 for Petersburg.

HEMP—Sales have been moderate—clean Russia $165 a 167, and Outshot $155 per ton—and 100 bales Manilla, at 7c per lb 6 mos.

HIDES—The principal part of the late imports of Rio Grand have been sold at 14 a 14½c per lb, and other descriptions fully sustain the quoted rates.

HAY—Sales 300 bundles, principally for Southern markets, at $12 a 13 per 100 lbs.

HOPS—The market has sustained no change on the last reported prices. A few parcels have been taken for consumption at quotations, and 2 a 300 bales, intended for the Havre market, at 12½ a 13c per lb.

IRON—Sales old Sable have been made at $90, and new 81 a 83—and English bar at $70 a 72 per ton.

LIQUORS—Sales Rochelle Brandy to the trade, in lots, 1,34, 1,36 and $1,38 per gall, pipes, half do, [illegible] do—and Spanish white, for exportation, 5th proof, at [illegible]c per gall. The last import of St Croix Rum is not all landed; a few sales at prices corresponding to our quotations. Sales Malaga and Goucin Wines, 43 a 46c per gall; French Madeira about 50c per gall 6 mos—and other Wines, in parcels to the trade, at former prices.

MOLASSES—Since our last report the stock has been much increases by further arrivals—but the late extensive transactions have produced more firmness in the article, and holders are looking forward for higher prices.

The principal sales are as follows—500 hhds Havana Matanzas at 23 a 24c—500 do Trinidad at 25 a 26c—60 do Gaudaloupe at 25½c—100 do Havana Sweet, at 24½ a 25c per gallon, 6 mo cr.

NAVAL STORES—The limited supplies of Turpentine have caused prices for Spirits to further advance—and the late arrivals of Tar have caused that article in some measure to decline. Other Naval Stores have sustained no material change.

OIL—Sperm remains as last reported—Olive has advanced about 5c pr gallon—Linseed is nearly all out of first hands, and prices are improving—sales 100 bbls Shore, 9.50 a $10 pr bbl.

RICE—There have been several importations, and sales at quotations

SUGAR—The market remains as reported in our last—and of the late importation of Box Sugars, small sales to the trade have been made at 8½ a 9c per lb—and 100 hhds Porto Rico at 8 a 8¼ pr lb, 4 and 6 mo.

SALT—Remains without change on prices, and moderate sales at quotations.

SALTPETRE—Sales of 300 bags Crude at 5½ a 6c per lb.

SPICES—Are in moderate demand, and prices obtained correspond to present quotations—160 cases Cassia, 12½c per lb 4 mos.

TOBACCO—Stock reduced to about 100 hhds, and last sale Kentucky approved, choice quality, at 10c per lb 6 mos.

TALLOW—Stocks accumulate and prices recede.

WOOL—An increased demand has been experienced for those descriptions required for home trade, and large exports of S. American Wool, 150 a 200,000 lbs, sold at supposed 15c per lb. The market has acquired more firmness, and holders of choice qualities are less anxious to effect sales

☞ At a meeting of Engine Company No. 29, on Monday evening, December 1, the following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That the members of this Company totally disclaim any feeling of prejudice or ill-will against the Board of Directors of the Firemen's Insurance Company; nevertheless we consider the manner in which they have appropriated certain funds which have accrued in their office, and which they declared by their votes as belonging in part to this Company, constituting, as we do, a portion of the Boston Fire Department) liable to just censure—Therefore, the manner in which they have proposed to dispose of those funds, meets the disapprobation of this Company.

Resolved, That, in the opinion of this meeting, the Committee appointed by the Board of Directors on the 13th of October, have not recommended the most useful and judicious appropriation of the $954.01, but have assumed a power which the Legislature never intended to delegate in their act of incorporation.

Resolved, That we boast of the possession of generous hearts and open hands to the claims of humanity and benevolence in every shape, and that the Charitable Association of the Boston Fire Department has not more ardent friends than the members of this Company; and if an increase of funds be necessary to the propriety and usefulness of that institution, we will contribute cheerfully a much larger amount in aid of the laudable purposes for which it was instituted; but at the same time we choose to do it at a time and in a manner most agreeable to ourselves. Per order, dec 3 CHAS. S. HUNT, Clerk.

FOREIGN LETTER OFFICE, CITY HALL.—Letter bags for London, Liverpool, and Havre via New York, will close on Friday evening 5th inst, at 8 o'clock.

Sch Diomede, from Philadelphia for Portland, grounded on the flats between Holmes Hole and Edgartown, on Saturday last—vessel and cargo will probably be saved.

We are requested to state, that persons residing on the outer islands in this harbor, are in the habit of offering themselves to masters of vessels as soon as they have approached within a certain distance known as "pilot ground." It may be of some consequence to masters to know that although they may be within "pilot ground," if they refuse the offer of a regular pilot, before or after taking any other person to pilot them, and any accident should befal the vessel, underwriters will refuse to pay insurance. These transient persons have no authority to receive the rates of regular pilotage.

Shipmasters coming into the bay at night, are reminded that they ought to display a light in the rigging for the guidance of pilots. In very many instances, recently, the pilot boats have passed vessels in the Bay and off the Capes, and afterwards found them inside, when from various circumstances, they know they must have passed within a mile or two of them in the dark.

TREMONT THEATRE.

LAST NIGHT BUT TWO OF MRS AUSTIN, AND THIRD NIGHT OF MR WALTON.

On which occasion they will appear in the celebrated BEGGARS' OPERA.

THIS EVENING, December 3,

Will be performed the Satirical Vandeville called the

BEGGARS' OPERA!

Written in 1728, by the celebrated JOHN GAY.—The Original Overture by Dr DEPUSCH.

A complete version of John Gay's celebrated Satirical Drama called the Beggars' Opera, forming as it does a feature in the History of England and throwing a light upon the manners of the last century.

☞ The Manager has the honor of laying before the public, the latest Edition of this splendid work, as now performed at the Metropolitan Theatres in England, and likewise in New York and Philadelphia, in which, while every care has been taken to retain the pointed wit and sarcasm which lashed the vices of the period, equal attention has been paid to curtail every expression which might be considered as likely to offend the superior refinement of the present age. The Manager has only to add that the Beggars' Opera, being esteemed the finest collection of old English, Irish and Scotch Melodies now extant, he is happy in the opportunity of offering to his patrons, an Opera which he considers in every way worthy of their approbation.

CAPT. MACHEATH,	MR WALTON

A CARD.—SIGNORS GAMBATI and RAVAGLIA respectfully inform the ladies and gentlemen of Boston that they will give a second Concert of Vocal and Instrumental Music on SATURDAY EVENING, Dec. 6, at Boylston Hall, Washington street.

Further particulars will be hereafter announced. d3

TO EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS OF NEWSPAPERS.—A gentleman of literary habits, well versed in the science of Political Economy, and especially conversant with the state of parties, which at present divide the citizens of the Republic, intending to visit the Capital and remaining there during the session of Congress, offers his services to any Editor or Publisher, friendly to the present Executive Government of the Union, desirous of enriching his paper with the earliest intelligence of passing events—giving place to the lucubrations of one whose opportunities could not fail to afford him ample materials for doing justice to his employer—and, at the same time, of promoting the great interests of the country.

Applications may be made, by letter, addressed P. E. and left at this office, to which immediate attention will be given, and a personal interview granted, if required. d3

The creditors are required to produce on or before the 5th day of December next the evidence of their demands, duly authenticated with the interest calculated up to the time of the dividend.

The copartnership creditors will be paid at the office of the assignees Nov 71 Water street, and the individual creditors at the office of John L & James L Graham, counsellors at law, 143 Fulton street.

New York, Nov 8th, 1834.

JOHN LORRIMER GRAHAM,
JOSEPH B. VARNUM. } Assignees.

epistD15 nov 21

TO BE LET, four brick Dwelling Houses, situated at the corner of Southack and Grove streets—said houses are three stories high in front, and four in rear, and are finished with every convenience for genteel residences. Good security will be required for the punctual payment of the rents—apply to GRENVILLE T. WINTHROP, Heard's Building, 17 Court street. §istf n 26

LOST—On last Sabbath day or evening, an old dark morocco pocket book, small size, clasp broken off, containing several small unsettled bills, which were receipted—also, an order signed by James M. Russell and several other papers of no value to any person but the owner—payments having been stopped. Whoever has found the same and will return it at Chambers No 33 School st, shall receive a suitable reward and the thanks of the owner.

n21 tf T. H FOSTER.

BOARD WANTED.—A furnished front chamber with Board is wanted by a gentleman and his wife, in a small respectable family. A line stating terms and location, and addressed to Vauxhall, through the post office, will receive attention. d2

NOTICE.—Whereas my wife Ann, having left my bed and board, this is to forbid all persons harboring or trusting her on my account, as I shall pay no debts of her contracting from this date. [d2—* WILLIAM MORRIS.

TO PROVIDENCE.

UNRIVALLED EXPEDITION!

By Rail Road Cars and U. S. Mail Coaches.

THE TREMONT LINE, in conjunction with the Rail Road, is now prepared to convey to and from Providence, all passengers who may wish to avail themselves of this safe, elegant and expeditious conveyance.

The superiority of this route over all others, will appear obvious on a moment's reflection. The fact that passengers who leave Boston at 7 A. M. arrive in Providence as soon as those who leave two hours earlier—at 5, and stop to breakfast on the road—seems necessary only to be known, to induce all passengers to secure seats in the Rail Road Line.

Cars leave depot, foot of the Common, every day at 7 A. M. to meet the boats. On Sunday, at 9. Also, at 11 A. M. to Canton, thence by coaches, via Foxboro' the shortest and most level route, to Providence.

Returning, leave Providence on the arrival of the boats, and arrive in Boston in 4 hours.

U. S. Mail Coach leaves as usual at 5 A. M. For seats, be particular and apply at City Tavern, Brattle street, and Washington Coffee House, 158 Washington st.

COMMERCIAL HOUSE,

NO. 94 COMMERCIAL STREET, BOSTON.

JOHN E. HUNT begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that the above House is now open as a Summer Establishment. Having had a long experience in keeping a genteel "Restaurateur," and eating house, he flatters himself that the reputation which he has gained will ensure him a liberal patronage.

Clubs, Parties, Engine and Fire Companies, can be accommodated at short notiee, with every thing which the season affords. Coffee, Soups and refreshments, at all hours, and the Bar will be found stocked with the best of Liquors and Wines.

Merchants in the neighborhood of Commercial wharf, Ship Masters, and the numerous business men in that part of the city, are respectfully invited to call and inspect the conveniences and accommodations of the place.

The House has been fitted up for an extensive but private Boarding House. Gentlemen intending to take the Southern Packets at the neighboring Slips, and Country Traders, will find airy rooms, good accommodations and prompt attendance, convenient to their business, and at the same time retired, comfortable, and "at home."

J. E. H. pledges himself to devote his undivided attention to the establishmeui, and will ensure the public an orderly, well conducted house.

☞The Boston and Providence Union Line of Stages put up at this establishment. Stage Books for the Boston, Leominster, Westminster, Templeton, Athol, Greenfield, Brattleborough and Albany Mail Stages are kept at this House for those Lines. [je17—tf] JOHN E. HUNT.

HOWARD HOUSE,

HOWARD STREET.

The Subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has taken that well known and extensive establishment, formerly occupied by the late Mr WILLIAM GALLAGHER. He hopes by strict attention and a desire to please, to merit a share of patronage from the public which was bestowed upon his predecessor.

The House is situated in the most central part of the city, and contiguous to the Post Office and other public buildings. It has been fitted up in neat and genteel style,—the rooms airy and retired. The Larder will at all times be provided with every delicacy the season will afford.

Parties wishing to be provided with entertainment for any number of persons can be accommodated at the shortest notice.

☞A few single Gentlemen can be accommodated with Board. The House will be opened on the 20th inst.
